

Bishop Garrigan Honor Society

The Bishop Garrigan Honor Society honors students who excel in academics, service, and extra-curricular activity during their time in high school.

Students must acquire 14 points or higher based on the following rubric to be inducted into the Bishop Garrigan Honor Society. Points are accumulated beginning freshman year. Induction will take place in May of junior year.

Academics - Academic guidelines will be based on an accumulative GPA through fall semester of junior year.

Activities - Points will be awarded in the same manner as the Bishop Garrigan activity awards. Please refer to the handbook for point system. Points are submitted by coaches and activity leaders.

Service and Youth Ministries- Service hours may be accumulated through school, parish, or community events. Hours must be logged with Mr. Rosenmeyer using the link on our Bishop Garrigan webpage.

	6 points	4 points	2 points
Academics	3.75 or higher	3.5 - 3.74	3.33 - 3.49
Activities	Above 400 points	300-399 points	200-299 points
Service	101 and higher	75 -100 hours	50-74 hours

Class of 2017 - Induction into National Honor Society as in the past.

Class of 2018 - Academic minimum of 3.5 with consideration of activities and service as in the past.

Class of 2019 - Academic points as stated above with adjusted activity and service points.

Class 2020 - Full implementation of above plan.

***Students receiving three or more Good Conduct violations prior to induction will not be considered for acceptance into the Bishop Garrigan Honor Society.

***Students receiving a third Good Conduct violation while a member of the Bishop Garrigan Honor Society will be dismissed from the society.
